HITLER'S ARMIES SWARM TO POLAND'S BOUNDARY

ZILINA, Slovakia, Aug. 21 (AP)—German army divisions, geared for lightning action, pushed on to northern Slovakia today. Motorized troops, fully equipped with aircraft guns and light artillery, massed at the frontier. Slovakia's most travelled roads to Poland were commanded by German arms.

As large-scale operations continued, involving a force estimated at 250,000 men, observers asserted the strategy was plain.

SLOVAKIA'S ARMY MASSES

Newspapers printed German reports of new fortifications on the Polish side of the boundary, but reported nothing of the intense activity in the German military zone in Slovakia.

Youths unexpectedly summoned for military service, however, discovered that Slovakia's army was being mobilized gradually and without official acknowledgment.

The mobilization, according to an

VIENNA, Aug. 21 (INS)—Large troop movements in the German province of Austria were reported today. Since early morning the troops were passing through Vienna at half-hourly intervals to the northwest in the direction of Bratislavia, Slovakian capital. The military formations were of all kinds, including artillery and armored cars, all fully equipped.

BERLIN, Aug. 21 (INS)—Strong Polish troop movements and concentrations have been reported along the borders of the Moravian protectorate, according to a German official news agency (DNB) dispatch from Maerischostrau.

WARSAW, Aug. 21 (AP)—The British Embassy has circularized its nationals in Warsaw, advising them to leave Warsaw as soon as possible in "view of the considerable danger of a rupture in Polish-German relations," a reliable informant said today. British tourists, it was reported, have been advised to leave Poland immediately because of anticipated difficulties in transportation should war break out.

MAP shows heavy concentration of Nazi troops in Slovakia on Polish border and long border seperating Germany and Poland, which must be defended in case of war. Germany has "hemmed in" almost one-half of Poland.

NEW BARRE STRIKE RIOTS; STATE ASKED FOR TROOPS

SOUTH BARRE, Aug. 21—In the face of a "no violence" pledge to Governor Saltonstall, strikers at the Barre Wool Combing Co. took over this walkout-ridden town today, beating company employes on their way to work, and stripping clothing from women plant workers.

With the Governor on his way to the Plattsburg army maneuvers, town authorities feverishly sought state aid in the crisis, as the violence spread through the town.

As a result of their pleas for assistance, a conference was called in the governor's office by his chief secretary, Carroll Meins, who outlined the situation to State Police Commissioner Eugene McSweeney and Capt. John F. Stokes, head of the state detective force.

Meins read them a telegram from Clifton Wolcott, chairman of the Barre board of selectmen, in which Wolcott reminded the governor of his promise to straighten things out, should the situation get out of hand.

The governor's secretary indicated he might telephone the Chief Executive at Plattsburg to ask for instructions.

"WHOLE TOWN DIVIDED"

Wolcott declared that "the whole town is divided into factions—those on strike and those continuing to work."

Police Chief William G. Butler appealed to State Labor Commissioner James T. Moriarty, but the commissioner refused to act, declaring that his intervention had been refused by company officials.

"The company could settle the whole thing in five minutes, if they wanted to, by reinstating the four girls whose discharges set it off a month ago," Moriarty declared.

He charged "nationality discrimination" on the part of the company, asserting the strike arose from an attempt to cut down the number of Italians employed at the plant.

Today's riots started when the strikers rallied to keep the six o'clock shift at the plant from going to work.

SPREAD OVER TOWN

Abandoning their previous tactics of picketing in the immediate vicinity of the plant, the strikers split up into small detachments and baffled Barre's eight-man police force in a series of swift raids in all parts of town which saw cars overturned, workers beaten, and women's clothing torn from their backs.

After hours of hectic rioting, during which police scurried from one trouble spot to the next, always a little behind the raiding parties, only a scant dozen workers succeeded in getting inside the plant, kept in operation for the past month by 500 members of an independent union which refused to heed the strike call voted by 200 A. F. of L. textile workers.

TWO BADLY HURT

At least two workers were badly injured, and several women were driven away from the plant gates with their clothing in shreds.

Lyle Henderson, 22, suffered a deeply cut arm, and Frank Riley, 23, was the worse for a bad beat-

War Scare Sags Stocks

NEW YORK, Aug. 21 (INS)—Tightening of the German-Polish tension over Danzig today sent blue chip leaders in the stock market down one to nearly three points, with curb issues showing a similar trend.

American Can dropped $2 a share, while Bethlehem Steel lost nearly $3. Chrysler was off $2 and General Motors about $2. Big Steel elbowed off $1.50. Other stocks to lose $1 or more included American Telephone, American Smelting, Westinghouse, Allied Chemical, United Aircraft and Youngstown Sheet & Tube.

Blaze in Bus Traps Worker

A 40-year-old Brighton mechanic was trapped and nearly burned to death today when the motor of a bus fisted into flames in Central sq., Cambridge.

Philip Lundquist, of Randolph st., Brighton, had crawled into the compartment in the back of the bus where the motor is located to make repairs after the heavy vehicle had stalled at Massachusetts ave.

Suddenly there was a loud report and flames burst into his face.

Arthur F. Jennings, 25, of Paul st., West Haven, Conn., driver of the bus, rushed to the rear of the vehicle with an extinguisher and held the flames in check while Lundquist crawled out.

Lundquist was taken to Cambridge City Hospital and treated for first and second degree burns of the face, arms, shoulders and chest.

$3,377,000 Hub Housing Job Let

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Nathan Straus, United States Housing Administrator, today awarded a $3,377,000 contract to the John Bowen Co., of Boston, for construction of the 800-family unit low rent housing project in the Charlestown district of Boston.

Straus said construction would be started as soon as demolition work was completed.

Bodies of Girl and 5 Men Washed Up at Rye Beach

RYE BEACH, N. H., Aug. 21—The bodies of five men and a girl about 18 years old were found today strewn along Ry Beach between Straw's Point and the harbor. Members of a fishing party which put out yesterday in a 22-foot cabin cruiser owned by Ralph Pryor of Dover, the six had evidently been pounded by the heavy surf of last night over a quarter of a mile of jagged rocks reaching out to sea from the beach.

Identified in a Portsmouth funeral parlor, where they had been sent by Dr. Frederick Ray, Rye medical examiner, the six were:

ETHELYN CUTTER, 18, Newmarket, N. H.
RALPH PRYOR, Dover Point, N. H.
FRANK PLANT, New Boston, N. H.
JOSEPH WOJMAN, Newmarket.
WALTER HARGRAVES, Newmarket.
CLARENCE YEATON, Dover Point.

All except the girl wore life preservers, but an extra lifebelt lay near the stretch of beach where the bodies were found by Ann Locke, 16, and her 14-year-old brother, John, of Methuen.

FAINT CRIES HEARD IN SURF

Indications that at least one of the six was still alive as they pounded in over the rocks wer seen when two summer residents, 931living half a mile away, reported they heard faint cries over the booming of last night's heavy surf.

They went out on the porch, they disclosed, to listen for a repetition of the cries, but hearing nothing, decided to investigate no further.

Meanwhile, it appeared, the five men and the girl, clinging to a rope found tied about the body of a man about 55 years old, were gasping out their last strength as the rocks battered away their will to live.

The Pryor boat had been missing since yesterday afternoon, when, according to Robert Pryor, son of the owenr, it took out a fishing party of six.

Coast Guard officials believed it was caught in the roaring southwester which lashed the North Shore yesterday, whipping up towering seas and heavy surf.

The six found on the beach had evidently taken to the water as their boat foundered, according to Sprague.

The leader of the party, he said, must have lashed a rope round his waist, instructing the other members of the party to cling to it to avoid being driven apart in the surf.

The bodies were badly battered from the pounding they had

P. O. AIDS BOND PROBE; $20,000 BAIL FOR 1 MAN

Two other federal agencies, the immigration department and the postal service, today joined the FBI and Boston police in their sweeping investigation of a nationwide forged bond swindle of banks and private banking houses.

Two men and a girl are under arrest in Boston in connection with the swindle, alleged to have extended as far as Texas and California and to have swindled in Boston the First National Bank, the Second National Bank and Paine, Webber & Co.

At least 17 other girls are due for questioning, officials said.

In municipal court today, Josef Schmidt, 35, unemployed cafe worker, pleaded not guilty to larceny of $3200 from the First National Bank and $5280 from Paine Webber & Co.

In these complaints he was charged jointly with Carl Eckert, alias Carl Eggers, 35, a waiter, who is under arrest by the G-men with Miss Eileen Cooke of Newton, a maid at the exclusive Somerset Club.

Josef Schmidt

Schmidt was also charged jointly with Eckert with conspiracy to steal $3200 from the First National, $5280 from Paine Webber & Co., and again $15,400 from Paine Webber.

He entered no plea to the conspiracy charges. Clerk James Milward explaining these were beyond the jurisdiction of municipal court.

Judge John Duff held Schmidt in bonds of $20,000 for hearing Aug. 28, and in default of bail he was sent to Charles street jail.

U. S. PLANS REARREST

A federal officer was present at the arraignment and asked Detective Daniel Goode that federal officials be notified if Schmidt is about to be bailed, in which event he would be rearrested on federal process.

Meanwhile Eckert and Miss Cooke awaited arraignment before a United States commissioner here on federal charges to violate the national bank robbery act, these complaints having been secured early today in New Bedford federal court at the request of Virgil Peterson, New England FBI agent in charge.

CHARGE USE OF MAILS

Immigration officials entered into the investigation when Miss Mary Ward, immigration commissioner here, ordered the papers of Schmidt and Eckert investigated.

Schmidt is said not to be a citi-

Fr. Divine's Friend Charges R. I. Bribes

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 21 (INS)—The woman who stunned this playground of the bluebloods by offering her $100,000 mansion to Father Divine tossed another bombshell today with charges that she has been compelled to pay thousands of dollars in bribes to politicians.

Flitting through the beautiful high-ceilinged rooms of "The Castle," where 100 trunks of Divine "angels" already are stored, Mrs. Angela C. Kaufman said she would name these persons within a few days in another gesture of defiance to society's merry-go-round.

Mrs. Angelina Kaufman

Mrs. Kaufman offered her estate to Fr. Divine after she had been refused a liquor license. Divine and 50 'angels' were to have taken over yesterday, but were balked by the rainstorm that swept New England.

BRIBED JUDGE, TOO

"I was told by certain officials," Mrs. Kaufman said, "that if I paid this and that I would receive a license. I paid. I don't know how much, but at least $7000 went to various persons whose promises weren't worth a penny. I paid more thousands directly to politicians. I won't name them now, but I will say this: One of these politicians is a judge."

Asked why, if so much money was paid, her license was not forthcoming, she replied:

"Perhaps those I paid did not have the influence they boasted of, or perhaps they wanted to bleed me more. But they are going to be exposed, and I am ready to expose them in court."

While celebrating its 300th anniversary of freedom and tolerance, Newport found time to keep an eye on "The Castle." Hundreds

Nazi Victim Kills Self In Waltham

Dr. Kurt Rosenmeyer, 43, a Jewish refugee from Germany, hanged himself today from a water tower on the Waltham estate of a former classmate, Medical Examiner T. M. Gallagher reported.

His body was found suspended from the tower, near the home of Richard Mayer, real estate dealer, where Rosenmeyer had been a house guest. Mayer and Rosenmeyer attended school together in Germany many years ago.

Rosenmeyer had been living at 215 West 98th st., New York city. Difficulty in obtaining permission to practice medicine in New York had discouraged him, the medical examiner said.

Two letters, addressed by Rosenmeyer to his wife, who still is in Germany, asked her forgiveness.

Trio Killed in Plane Crash Fire

CASS LAKE, Minn., Aug. 21 (AP)—Leonard J. Otrembo, 27, pilot of Minneapolis, and two passengers, Raymond Sweet, 17, and Douglas Ellis, 13, both of Cass Lake, were killed in a plane crash here.

Coroner Earl Thomas said the plane had just left the local airport and was about 50 feet up when it fell. The craft caught fire.

KENNEDY BOOM AIMED AT FARLEY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (INS)—A presidential boom for Joseph P. Kennedy, American ambassador to Britain, with the object of getting Massachusetts Democrats to propose him as a "favorite son," was disclosed today as the latest political maneuver of the White House "palace guard."

The secret purpose of the "guardsmen" is to destroy the political prestige of Postmaster General James A. Farley, soon to return from a European vacation.

The "palace guard" fight on the postmaster general, incidentally, is being continued under cover, despite President Roosevelt's recent declaration that reports of their efforts to oust Farley from the Democratic chairmanship were "tommyrot."

The Kennedy boom, while ostensibly directed at the Presidency, would be launched, in reality, to win him the Vice Presidential nomination.

Thus, Kennedy would be brought out against Farley, who is reported determined to win the second place on the 1940 Democratic ticket if he cannot be nominated as standard-bearer.

With Kennedy as their candidate for second place, the "guardsmen" believe the President would not take sides in behalf of Farley. And they also believe Farley can be defeated if his chief rival for the Vice Presidential nomination is, like himself, an Irish Catholic.

There is one obstacle to the Kennedy boom. Senator David I. Walsh, a power in Massachusetts politics, is opposed to an instructed delegation. He wants the Massachusetts delegation to go to the 1940 convention uninstructed.

Freed Seeks 2d Place On Democratic Ticket

Paul A Freed, 49, of 40 Ripley rd., Dorchester, today announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant-governor in 1940.

Freed was formerly a labor investigator for the state department of public works and is a World War veteran.

"My slogan will be 'It's time the working man got a break,' said Freed. "He isn't getting one under the present Republican administration; in fact he hasn't had one under any administration except that of James M. Curley."

HUB UNIT JOINS Y-D IN 'WAR'

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Aug. 21—With Boston's 101st Engineers taking the field as a unit for the first time since the war games began here, the Yankee Division swung into action on an extended front today, co-operating with the 43d Division against the combined forces of the 27th and 44th.

Though limping from blistered feet, and swollen from poison ivy, the engineers, recruited from Boston, Cambridge, Somerville, Medford and Lynn, and commanded by Col. John J. Carew, of the Medford Board of Health, were commissioned to throw a military bridge across a little river on the "front"—one of the key operations of the day.

NOT "TOUGHENED"

Only about half the 500-man outfit had seen active service during the maneuvers prior to Friday and Saturday's division-against-division "battle," while the remainder had stayed behind engaged in camp construction. The consequence was that, deprived of preliminary "hardening up," many of the men fell victim to the common ills of foot soldiers—painful underpinning, complicated by muscular stiffness, insect bites and plant poisoning.

Doggedly they took the field just the same, with but a scant dozen answering sick call, and most of those returning to duty after treatment.

For four New England guardsmen, there will be little if any more war this year.

4 OUT OF THE 'WAR'

One of the four lay critically hurt in the Plattsburg barracks hospital, while the others were suffering from serious injuries incurred in an automobile accident near Cadyville.

Most serious hurt was Sergt. Robert Fischer of Manchester, N. H., attached to Co. C, Fifth Infantry, who had a possible fractured skull, an eye injury that threatens to cost him the sight of one eye, and possible internal injuries. Hospital authorities gave him slight chance of recovery.

First Sergt. Walter Sokolowski, Sergt. R. Yavricek and Corp. Rudolph Rose, all of Company C, were the others injured. Sergt. Sokolowski had a broken arm.

Army authorities said the car in which the four were riding failed to make a turn near Cadyville. Identity of the driver had not been determined.

AWAITING GOVERNOR

Gov. Saltonstall was expected to reach the "war theater" during the day, to be welcomed by a 19-gun salute. He will watch 52,000 regular army and National Guard troops swing into action, as the army's pride and joy, the mechanized Seventh Cavalry from Fort Knox, Ky., got its first real test in an "attack" on National Guard units far superior in numbers.

The 7th, which thus far has confined itself chiefly to exhibition tours of the 450-square mile war zone, formed part of the Second Corps force which opposed a strong First Corps on a 20-mile front along the Saranac river.

Thief Throws Money Away —By Mistake

For 10 days a Waban girl's handbag, containing $5, has lain in a vacant lot there, Newton police discovered today after arresting a Newton Center youth who allegedly snatched the purse on August 11.

He is Joseph G. McCarthy, 21, of Chesley road, and according to police he admitted stealing the handbag but was very indignant when told the girl, Miss Viola Smith, 23, of Plainfield street, had reported it contained $9.

McCarthy, police said, insisted he obtained only $4 from the bag, then led police to the vacant lot. The handbag was found—and in it the other $5.

In Newton court, McCarthy pleaded not guilty but offered no defense. He was given six months' suspended sentence.

Wedding Cake Taken as Loot

Thieves gathered an odd assortment of loot—including a saxophone and a wedding cake—in week-end breaks, according to police.

The cake, valued at $10 and intended for a Sunday wedding, was taken in a break at a Battery st. bakery.

Percy H. Smith, of Bowdoin st., told police he left his bedroom door open Saturday night to "get some air." He awoke to discover a thief had taken advantage of the open door to loot his trousers, hung over a chair, of $20, also taking a pair of binoculars valued at $120.

Coast Guard Sent to Aid Trawler Off Cape

The Coast Guard patrol boat Faunce was despatched today to aid the fishing trawler Quincy, disabled 80 miles off Cape Cod, after the patrol boat Travis, originally ordered to assist the fisherman, reported she was fogbound off the Maine coast. The Quincy, carrying a crew of 18, reported her engines disabled.

Dying of Fumes, Bible on Knee

MARBLEHEAD, Aug. 21—Found unconscious on a sofa in the living room of his home early yesterday, a Bible on his knees, Capt. George Bartlett, veteran lighthouse tender skipper, was near death in the Mary Alley Hospital here today.

Well known to mariners and yachtsmen, the 48-year-old federal government employe was captain of the tender Lotus, out of the Chelsea lighthouse base.

He was discovered dying in his home at Harris Beach, two jets of a kitchen gas stove pouring deadly illuminating gas fumes into the room, but with a window near him wide open. He has been in a coma for almost 40 hours, doctors said today.

Refuse to Postpone Old Colony Closing

The suspension date—Sept. 24—for the passenger service of the Old Colony branch of the New Haven R. R. will not be extended to comply with a request by Governor Saltonstall, it was revealed today.

On Aug. 18, Gov. Saltonstall wrote the railroad trustees, notifying them he had made appointments to a special unpaid commission for the purpose of investigating how towns now served by the Old Colony would get transportation after the service was ended.

ASKED EXTENSION

"The commission will organize in a few days," he said, "and I respectfully request as long an extension (in the closing dates) as possible be made in order that this new commission may begin its work."

Today he received a letter from the trustees of the Old Colony, acknowledging his request, but enclosing a letter sent them by United States District Court Judge Carroll C. Hincks of New Haven, judge of the reorganization proceedings under which the railroad is now operating.

DISPUTE AUTHORITY

The letter read in part:

"The notice to discontinue was made after careful research and after the situation had had considerable publicity in Massachusetts and indicates you were convinced the service was resulting in substantial operating deficits.

"That being so, neither you nor the court have authority to rescind or modify the notice of termination, notwithstanding our desire to co-operate with the Massachusetts authorities."

Wait 'Pensions Or Jobs' Cry By Veterans

Jobs or pensions for World War veterans probably will be demanded at the national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars here Aug. 27 to Sept. 1.

Officials high in the organization have pointed out that there is an increasing percentage of veterans in economic difficulty due to disabilities incurred in the war and increasing age.

Washington will have official observers here to listen to the talks and report on the reactions of the delegates.

Governor Saltonstall will address the opening sessions of the veterans and the auxiliary next Monday morning. The encampment banquet of the Military Order of the Cootie will be Monday night at the Hotel Touraine.

BOY HELD IN $6100 FOR BREAK

The 17-year-old son of a Dorchester physician was held in a total of $6100 bail in Quincy District Court today on charges of breaking and entering in the nighttime, possession of burglar tools, and causing damage to property.

The boy is Henry E. Rooney, son of Dr. John F. Rooney of Savin Hill ave., Dorchester. Police said he was trapped in a roadside stand on the Southern artery near the Quincy police station as he was trying, they charged, to pry open vending machines.

The youngster pleaded not guilty to the charges before Judge Kenneth Nash, and hearing on all counts was continued until tomorrow.

Judge Nash held him in $5000 bail on the breaking and entering charge, $1000 on the charge of possession burglar tools, and $100 on the property damage accusation.

Save Cripple, 14 Others in No. End Fire

Four families of 15 persons, including a 56-year-old paralytic, were driven out of a five-story brick building on Charter st., in the North End today, by a fire that swept a second-floor suite.

The victim of paralysis, Augostino Trovardo, was carried to a back porch by Patrolmen Joseph McGann and Michael Griffin, who arrived at the scene in a cruising car and smashed in a rear door of his third-floor apartment to rescue him.

He remained on the porch until the fire subsided. His wife, Mary, and son, Jack, 20, were also driven out.

Officer Paul Harrington aroused the sleeping occupants after discovery of the fire, which officials said was caused by careless disposal of cigarettes and resulted in approximately $500 damage.

Others driven out in their nightclothes were Mr. and Mrs. Caspo Benniti and their son, James, 15, occupants of the front second-floor suite; Nicholas Capello, his wife, Sebastiana, their sons, John, 28, Frank, 23, and Philip, 17, and their daughters, Marion, 25, and Phyllis, 18, occupants in the fourth floor, and Mrs. Grace Pulpi and her daughter, Josephine, 12, fifth-floor occupants.

Attempt to Force Nazi Books On Tampa University Revealed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (INS)—A Southern university president today told the Dies committee that the German consul-general in New Orleans attempted last year to introduce Nazi teachings in the University of Tampa at Tampa, Florida.

The witness, Dr. John Harvey Sherman, president of Tampa University, charged that an effort was made by Baron Edgar Freiherr Spiegel von Eund Zupeickelsheim, who is stationed at New Orleans.

Dr. Sherman said President Rufus Harris of Tulane University also had voiced complaints against the baron this year.

OFFERS LIBRARY

The witness said that in March, 1938, the baron called at his office and proposed that the University of Tampa accept a German library.

"I asked him if he was making a personal gift," Dr. Sherman said.

"He replied, 'Oh, not I—my government.'

"He was very interested in our German chair. He wanted to know if it was filled by a proper person."

The visit had been preceded by a series of attacks on the German professor at Tampa University, Dr. Otto T. Kraus, a Viennese who has become an American citizen. Kraus left Germany because he was not sympathetic with the Nazi regime, Dr. Sherman asserted.

"KNOWS A MAN"

On March 10, 1938, Dr. Sherman said, Ernest Berger, German consul delegate at Tampa, called and said that he knew a man who wanted to present the university with a German library.

"Mr. Berger, who is an American citizen, did not say until later—at our second meeting—that he was the consul-delegate,' the witness asserted. On March 16, he visited my office again and said that he wanted to bring this man to my office the following day.

"Mr. Berger and the baron came on the 17th and we discussed the library. The baron made it perfectly clear that he had given such libraries elsewhere and that it was a practice of his government to do so.

CRITICAL OF JEWS

"He was critical of Jews. He observed that we had no quota on Jews in the university, that we had too many Jews on the board of directors and on the faculty."

Dr. Sherman told the committee that he now regrets that he did not "draw the Baron out more."

"As soon as he made it clear that he was representing the German government, I quickly got him out of my office," the university president said.

of automobiles crept by the mansion and occupants poked eager heads into the rain in the hope of witnessing the coming of the "angels."

In the huge kitchen, where Mrs. Kaufman herself sampled the dishes, her French chef was in a frenzy as the fried chicken cooled, piles of watermelons were untouched; cut glass and silver gleamed on 25 tables in the main dining room where the late Richard Washburn Child, author and diplomat, once entertained the royalty of Newport.

The so-called barroom, probably the equal of any in Newport, was gleaming silver blue. But on the bar the only bottles that sparkled were filled with ginger ale and soda. For one license that Mrs. Kaufman has states that she may run a "victualing house" and no more.

All liquors are banned.

Mrs. Kaufman, exhibiting the suite she expects Father Divine to occupy (sitting room, bedroom and two baths) also revealed that when the Negro cult leader takes over they plan a "systematic cleanup of Newport, where hundreds of Negroes are starving or trying to get on relief."

'Human Echo' Stumps Science With Skill

MEDINA, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—Nineteen-year-old Francis Magner, a human echo who stimultaneously duplicates another's speech, had science puzzled today with his involuntary knack of taking words out of people's mouths.

"I'm stumped," admitted Dr. Carleton F. Scofield, professor of psychology at the University of Buffalo, after testing the youth with classic quotations, scientific tongue twisters and even foreign languages.

"This boy reproduces the talk of others without a perceptible time interval between words of the speaker and his own.

To Magner himself, the strange trait is just as much a puzzle. "I found it out by accident two years ago," he said.

Dr. Scofield began his experiment by putting the youth through a series of tests involving complicated neurological terms. Magner responded without hesitation.

"I'll now recite a few lines of poetry," the psychologist said. He began:

"Hence loathed melancholy," and Magner, picking up with the first syllable, recited with him: "Of Cerberus and blackest midnight born in stygian cave forlorn. 'Mongst horrided shapes and sights and sights unholy . . . A'hm . . ."

Word for word, the psychologist's speech emerged a duet on the lips of his subject, even to the "A'hm."

"I can do this without looking at a person," Magner said, "just as long as I can hear him."

"The boy has such a great capacity of highly-skilled attention to the variation of sounds as they appear in speech, that it is phenomenal," Dr. Scofield declared.

Magner's talent sometimes proves a source of embarrassment.

"Lost my girl that way," he confessed. "We were dancing. . . Then she began talking. I just echoed back, without meaning to. She got so peeved that she walked off the floor."

Find 6 Bodies On N. H. Beach

suffered from the rocks which reach out like grim fangs of death a quarter of a mile to sea.

There was no way, the Coast Guard said, they could have reached the shore where they were found without having run the cruel gauntlet of jagged boulders.

The Locke youngsters came upon the six bodies as they went for a walk on the beach. Some lay with their battered, lifeless faces to the sky, others face down, as if they had collapsed, utterly weary, and were merely sleeping.

The bodies were strewn along the beach for 100 yards, the rope around one man's waist mutely demonstrating how he, as leader of the party, had tried to guide and drag the others to safety.

The six had evidently set out for shore with high hopes of winning through, despite the wind-driven seas that had proved too much for their boat, only to find themselves embroiled in a death struggle as they were washed among the rocks.

Unable to fight their way back against the heavy wash of the high-flung surges, the six must have felt their strength ebbing under the battering they were getting and shouted the plaintive cails for help heard above the roar of the surf—to no avail.

Mae Murray Seeking Mdivani Cash for Son

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 21 (INS)—Mae Murray, film star of silent days, will step into a mother's role tomorrow and go to court to fight on behalf of her 12-year-old son.

She will launch a legal battle against his father, Prince David Mdivani, to collect the $12,000 a year she says is needed to pay old medical bills and provide the youth with items "necessary for proper support."

She is scheduled to tell Superior Court about it as she follows up a suit filed against the Prince recently.

Miss Murray contended in the document that Mdivani lives lavishly and yet has failed to set up a $5000 trust fund for young Koran David Mdivani, as ordered by the court when the Prince and actress were divorced in 1933.

FILM STARS TAKE EILEEN TO HEARTS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 21—Film stars and Los Angeles society leaders took to their hearts today an unspoiled and grateful child, Eileen Parker, 13-year-old Boston orphan—and it was a day that they all will remember.

Host of the day at a series of luncheons a gay swimming party and lots of sight-seeing was Linda Ware, 14, the motherless little screen actress, who made it possible for the Boston child to see the things she always had dreamed of.

It was the second of four glorious days that Eileen will have in Hollywood with her chaperone, Miss Isabel Macdonald, Brookline school teacher.

WITH JACK BENNY

The Boston child will share the spotlight tonight with the little star at the world premiere of Linda's picture, "The Star Maker"—and her escort as she steps before the microphone like a star herself, will be none other than Jack Benny, no doubt faultlessly attired by his faithful valet, Rochester.

Not that public appearances are any novelty to Eileen now. Until a few days ago as nearly anonymous as a pretty girl can be after a life spent in orphanages and schools, the child has since the start of her trip shown amazing platform poise.

In Omaha, she was called on to follow the Nebraska city's eloquent Mayor Butler as one of the principal speakers as she was welcomed by the city.

And in Ogden she stole the show, unwittingly, from Utah's Governor Henry Blood, with her charming reception of the Wasatch state's greetings.

Still, for Eileen, tonight will provide an everlasting memory. She will see and meet all the glamorous figures she has hitherto known only as pictures in movie magazines—when she could get movie magazines.

Then comes a trip to Catalina island and more luncheons, dinners and studio trips before Eileen returns to tell her friends what Hollywood is like.

On the way back, Eileen may stop over in New York and visit the New York World's Fair as a climactic treat to more than two weeks of travel.

Cape Pastor Scores Nov. 23 Thanksgiving

PLYMOUTH [illegible] Thanksgiving Day [illegible] in a religious [illegible] Knudsen, pastor [illegible]

"My own forecast," the pastor said in conclusion, "is that the President, true to his father [illegible] spiritual self, will attend a service of Thanksgiving on Nov. [illegible]

"One great source of peace in the midst of chaos is the awareness that some things are too significant to be tossed about at the beck and call of pressure groups. A day which has become enshrined in the life of the nation as a day of Thanksgiving to Almighty God is a spiritual value in itself. To tamper with that day is to disturb the religious foundations of the republic [illegible]

"obtuse," thinking only in convenience [illegible] whole episode, the pastor [illegible] a God-sent in disguise.

Thousands have been stirred from their spiritual lethargy to defend what they suddenly realize is a sacred institution. Men who have not attended a Thanksgiving service for 25 years are surprisingly alert to defend a religious cause. It is possible that multitudes who have long forgotten the primary meaning of the Day will now be able to think a little beyond turkey, trains and football, to the spirit of living appreciation of all good things.

"WHEN YOU LIKE A CIGARETTE THE WAY I LIKE CAMELS —IT'S MIGHTY NICE TO GET MORE PUFFS PER PACK"

—— says Owen Harding, Veteran Maine Guide

Recent impartial scientific laboratory tests of 16 of the largest-selling brands show—

5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK

1 CAMELS were found to contain MORE TOBACCO BY WEIGHT than the average for the 15 other of the largest-selling brands.

2 CAMELS BURNED SLOWER THAN ANY OTHER BRAND TESTED—25% SLOWER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME OF THE 15 OTHER OF THE LARGEST-SELLING BRANDS! By burning 25% slower [illegible] smokers the [illegible] SMOKES PER PACK!

OWEN HARDING, who knows the woods, streams, and portages of his native Maine country like a book, also proves a good guide on cigarette quality, as he shares his favorite brand with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stanford, from down in New York City. "Camels are a longer-burning cigarette," Owen says, "and that means more smokin' for my money. It means, too, that Camels taste cooler... milder. Puff for puff, Camels put more pleasure in smoking and a big extra measure of it."

Observe the way your cigarette burns. Recent impartial laboratory findings confirm the experience of Camel smokers. Camels are known to burn longer, delivering steadily to smokers more pleasure per puff and more puffs per pack. And all the while you get the mild, ripe goodness of finer, more expensive tobaccos, drawn from the largest treasure of choice tobaccos ever gathered in one place. Camels are the quality cigarette every smoker can afford.

JUPITER PLUVIUS was an unexpected guest at the marriage of Polly Swan and Paul S. Brown, II [illegible] but his presence didn't mar the [illegible] ceremony or the gayety of the reception in the least . . .

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Gardner Swan . . . The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Charles S. Penhallow wore a full skirted gown of white taffeta and tulle, with a tulle veil and coronet of orange blossoms . . . She carried a bouquet of bouvardia, lilies of the valley and gardenias . . .

Mrs. Edward Holden (Constance Wigglesworth) of Cambridge and Mrs. Gregory Tucker (Elizabeth Ketchum), of Bennington, Vt., the matrons of honor and only attendants, wore afternoon gowns of white sharkskin with scarlet belts and hair ornaments of white shells . . . They carried bouquets of scarlet gladioli and white delphinium . . .

The newlyweds will spend their honeymoon on Cape Cod and in the autumn will be "at home" in Greenbelt, Maryland . . . The bride is a graduate of the Cambridge School and Bennington College . . . Mr. Brown, son of Mr. Samuel Brown of Wilson, N. Y., is a graduate of the University of [illegible]

WHAT CAUSES POOR VISION IN DARKNESS? | DO VITAMINS AID THE MEMBRANES?

By DR. WALTER H. EDDY

My eyesight is [illegible] normal in the dark. But normal under ordinary conditions. Is there anything I can do to help me [illegible]

Anxiety to see clearly in dim light is called hemeralopia. One of the interesting new discoveries about the vitamin field is that the visual substance of the eye that really sees requires a continuous supply of vitamin A to be renewed, and for measuring the "dark adaptation" [illegible] has such apparatus he can [illegible] tell whether your trouble is [illegible] of vitamin A or some [illegible] fault in the structure of your [illegible] Is there a vitamin which will keep eyes and membranes in a healthy condition? If so, in what foods can this vitamin be found?

[illegible] Lack of one of the ingredients which like the throat the body must receive [illegible] vitamin A. It is generally agreed by at least some International Units of vitamin A [illegible] are needed [illegible] without such renewal sharpness of [illegible] your vision is not good after dark try increasing your intake of vitamin A. You can do this by eating more green vegetables and [illegible]

VITAMIN A is the anti-xerophthalmic vitamin, because its omission from the diet results in an eye disease called xerophthalmia. It is a component of butter fat and egg yolk. It is also present in the green leaves of plants, in certain roots especially those with yellow color (carrots, sweet potatoes, etc.), and to a more abundant degree in fish oils, such as cod liver oil.

VITAMIN C is the [illegible] biotic vitamin, because its absence from the diet results in scurvy. It is particularly abundant in fruits, green vegetables [illegible] Orange [illegible]

However, instead of that, it took him away, and when he saw me [illegible] with [illegible] stopped making dates with me. I really want him back, but I don't know anything to [illegible]

BETSY.

You seem to have been playing with fire, my dear. I mean of course, the fire of jealousy. Usually it stimulates a man's love for a girl, or wakes him up to the fact that he wants to marry her. But both of this game has to be played [illegible] carefully than you seem to have played it. What you have done [illegible] evidently, is to convince your boy friend that you are tired of him.

You must try to persuade him [illegible] and [illegible] him a love note that will express [illegible]

This Fetching Plaid Jacket Is News at $1.19!

Here's JUST what you want for early Fall! Of course you already know that plaid is going to be THE thing this season. This rayon taffeta jacket is a honey and its $1.19 price tag and pearl buttons add a very new note. Just one look at it and I began thinking of the many ways young moderns will work it into their wardrobe. Of course it will be perfect as a blouse with your favorite skirt or a plain dark dress, and be tossed into a new outfit when worn as a separate jacket. You'll love the pointy little breast pocket and the comfortable short sleeves. You'll not have to see the plaid in red, green or navy to appreciate it! Sizes 32 to 38. After all this enthusiasm you'd never believe that it costs only $1.19! See it in Filene's Neckwear Shop, Street Floor. Mail orders or phone Hubbard 4200 until 9 p. m. (except Sunday).

NOW—LOANS OF $20 TO $300

ON NEW FIT YOUR BUDGET PLAN

Borrow on your own signature • Repay in 2 to 20 months as you choose • See how 12 monthly installments of $9.75 each repay $100 loan in full • Prompt service

IF YOU need money for Household's low cost way for you to get it. Your borrowing is strictly confidential. No red tape. No delays. You repay in 2 to 20 convenient monthly installments as best fits your budget. The sooner you repay your loan, the less it costs you. Let's assume that you need $100 and that you can conveniently repay $9.75 a month. The table below shows that 12 installments of $9.75 each will pay your loan in full, including charges. Or suppose you can pay more each month. Six monthly payments of $18.15 repay $100. Or if you wish smaller monthly payments you can repay $100 in 20 months at $6.41 per month for 20 months.

Simple to borrow

To get a Household Finance loan of $20 to $300 you merely tell us your name, address and occupation. We will promptly tell you whether we can make you a loan and how much it will cost. No endorsers are needed. No mortgage. No delays. Just a friendly interview in which you tell us frankly your needs and we tell you frankly how we can help you. Then we prepare an application. No credit inquiries are made of friends or relatives. No one else need sign any loan papers unless you yourself request it. (Husband and wife sometimes sign together). You get your loan promptly. Usually the money is ready for you the day after your application.

Choose the payment that fits your budget

Find the amount of each you need in the left column of the loan table. Then read across, picking out the monthly payment which fits your budget. If you have a steady income, even though very small, you can borrow. Or you can pay larger sums, if you wish, and pay up your loan sooner. No matter how small your loan, cost is not more than a short time. A loan of $100 repaid in twenty months costs only $6.32. And we get your Household loan you need no endorsers. You are spared the embarrassment of asking others to act as co-makers.

In your own interest don't get a loan unless you are sure you can meet the monthly payments. Then phone or visit us for further information.

This table is based on prompt repayment. Payments may be made in advance of the day they are due, if you wish. Advance payment reduces the cost of your loan proportionately, since your pay charges only for the actual time you have the money. Payments are calculated at Household's rate of 2½% per month, which is less than the lawful maximum.

Tom Yawkey Says He Is Satisfied . . . .

IN NEW YORK THIS WEEKEND, high above the Fifth Avenue traffic, Tom Yawkey said he was satisfied with his Red Sox setup. The young and muscular capitalist who has opened his pecuniary spigots and poured $4,500,000 into Fenway Park and subsidiary ball properties, vowed that his pennant ardor had not cooled after seven years of reversal. He would, he said, continue to prime the Red Sox pump with spendings for minor league material until his world championship ideal is attained. But the era when he had squandered large sums for tailor-made stars from impoverished rival clubs, is gone with the snows of yesteryear.

AUSTEN LAKE

Wiser? Yes! Disillusioned? No! He has had his money's worth!

Tom teetered behind his mahogany desk in his uptown apartment where plush carpet, crystal and gilt decorated the rooms. "I don't regret a penny," said he, "I'd rather spend it to make a lot of people happy than give it to the Federal politicians."

Apparently, said Tom with a contented pussycat grin, "everybody is worried about my headaches but me," and then narrowing his eyes a little resentfully, "I still insist on spending my money the way I want to and for what I want."

You want a pennant," I suggested, as a conversational prod.

If not this year, perhaps the next," he replied, "And if not then, the year after . . .

Takes Whole Responsibility

[illegible] wardship as one general factotum of [illegible] or that he has bought many a gold [illegible] 22 karat pieces Yawkey said that he, personally, had O Kd [illegible] ing in many cases until he wanted [illegible]

A typical annoyance clouded Yawkey's brow. "What I can't [illegible] around that I [illegible] Yawkey stretched Collins' [illegible] and he Cronin. For though [illegible] at the $25(000) check which [illegible] gers release Yawkey like- [illegible] the same pact to Connie Mack for Bass, McNair, Cramer [illegible] Marion an amount never revealed, but certainly above $300,000 [illegible] options.

And it was Yawkey who first conceived the plan of refitting [illegible] Park into a modern model of what a ball park should be [illegible] which ran close to a million [illegible] when he bought from Rob [illegible] Yawkey, like the rhyme about [illegible] origin, to shovel lavish funds into his hobby [illegible] Duke Duel, he assumed entire responsibility for the fortune [illegible] playground.

PROBABLY MUCH OF YAWKEY'S WILLINGNESS to shower [illegible] dawn loose sums on the Red Sox traces to the knowledge that he is [illegible] funds which otherwise would be soaked up in government [illegible] mount steeply as the individual taxpayer's income flows [illegible] plentifully. For the $4,500,000 sunk in Fenway property represents reinvested profits derived from the extensive Yawkey [illegible] textile mills, ore mines, lumber tracts and market dealings yielding perhaps several millions in fresh cash [illegible] year.

[illegible] reason, he hints, is nobody's business except his own, [illegible] more than the popular wonderment at the size of his personal [illegible] to most curiosity. It may be that his assets, real [illegible] liquid, amount to $10,000,000 which is pure guess work, inas- [illegible] I doubt that even he knows within a reasonable figure the [illegible] the fact that his amusements [illegible] ke handball, which he plays [illegible] assification as an "O. First of the high-powered threesomes to reach the turn was that of Fay Crocker of Uruguay, [illegible] of the favorites; Mrs. Glenna C[illegible]lett Vare, six time champion, and Jean Bauer of Providence, R. I.

Miss Crocker missed a short [illegible] on the 9th and still was out in 3[illegible] even par; Mrs. Vare had a bird- 3 on the ninth for a 39, and Miss Bauer was out in 40.

Beatrice Barrett of Minneapoli[illegible] played the first nine in even par with a birdie 4 on the 419 yard first hole and a bogey 5 on the [illegible]ighth.

Pam Barton, another favorite who holds the British title and won both British and U. UMP ARTFUL DODGER—Football style is shown here by the Yanks, in the second game of Sunday's bill with the Athletics. Crosetti fumbles, allowing Second Baseman Ambler of the A's to reach second. Gordon, Yanks' second baseman, tries to recover the fumble, in this uncommon piece of diamond action. The A's won the first, 5 to 4, but lost the second, 5 to 1.

Mr. Boston

By JACK CONWAY

WHILE HAMMERING Henry Armstrong will be the betting favorite, Lou Ambers will be the sentimental choice in the world's lightweight championship battle over the 15-round route in New York tomorrow night.

Ambers lost the title to Armstrong, and the fans would now like to see him regain it.

When Ambers was stripped of his championship, he went down fighting. Lou made such a smashing finish in the last two rounds that there were many fans at the ringside who thought he was entitled to the decision.

Armstrong couldn't tag Ambers like he could slow moving opponents like Barney Ross and Ceferino Garcia. At the time Ross lost his world's welterweight crown to Armstrong he had passed his fistic peak. Wealth, easy living and the pleasant environments of night clubs had dulled Barney's fighting blade. He wasn't a match for Armstrong's whirling attack.

Ambers, like Armstrong, is young. Lou also can match Hammering Henry in the matter of speed and in throwing punches.

Ambers is a shade better hitter than Armstrong. Any boxer who moves as fast as Armstrong naturally sacrifices some of his punching power.

Ambers has come up to the Armstrong bout after a series of contests against fair second class opponents. When he enters the ring tomorrow night, he will not be woudering whether his timing is right. He will know it is as a result of frequent test under blistering ring fire.

Ambers will not be afraid of a torrid pace for 15 rounds. He has prepared himself to travel this route, and should be able to rate himself along perfectly so that he will have plenty in reserve for a driving finish.

It looks as if the bout will go the limit of 15 rounds as neither boxer is a knocker-out. It will be a question of who can keep tossing the most punches and traveling at the fastest pace.

There will be a large delegation of Boston and New England fans at the ringside. They will be rooting for Ambers to win. Lou made many friends here when he fought Paul Junior and Honey Mellody.

Armstrong Has Proved Great Money Maker

ARMSTRONG HAS proved one of the greatest money makers for his pounds and inches in the history of the ring. He has the strongest pull at the box office of any champion other than Joe Louis. Hammering Henry picks up $50,000 purses like old-time champions did $5000 to $10,000.

Abe Attell, Battling Nelson and other old time champions now struggling to make both ends meet must look with amazement at some of the box office figures of Armstrong's bouts. They probably agree they came along a bit too soon as fistic greats.

Attell was the greatest 116-122 pound boxer to ever pull on a padded glove. He was master of the art of boxing, and would have made a fortune if he had been boxing during the big money days.

You can find Attell today around the race tracks trying to pick winners. He lives quietly, and is satisfied if he is able to make enough money to pay for his expenses.

None of these old-time champions ended up with any money.

Armstrong, Ambers and Louis will not be "broke" when they reach the end of the fistic trail. They are buying annuities and setting up trust funds. They realize that they cannot keep on boxing indefinitely, and they wish to safeguard their financial future.

When Armstrong and Ambers sweep into action tomorrow night, they will have their thoughts centered on gaining a victory, but they will also know that win, lose or draw they will be well paid for their efforts. The gate receipts will run between $150,000 and $200,000 which will give proper compensation to all parties.

CANTABS OPEN 1939 GRID GRIND

"Let's go, gang! There's lots of real work to be done!"

With this terse utterance, Adam Elcewicz, new gridiron major-domo at Cambridge Latin, started his pigskin charges on their first practice session of the '39 season at 10:30 o'clock this morning at Russell Field, North Cambridge.

It marked the opening football practice of any schoolboy or collegiate organization in New England this season. Coach Elcewicz said it was the earliest practice in the history of Cambridge Latin gridiron play.

NINE VETERANS

Led by Captain John Randall, serving his second successive year at the Latin helm, upwards of 100 prospects were on hand for the initial session.

Veterans spotted in the turnout were Capt. Randall, Claude Henry and Russell Boudreau, backs; Deacon Doyle and James Meehan, ends; Mitchell Bathaylis and "Ace" Khashmas, tackles; Angelo Bonsignore and Jim McCool, guards, and "Spike" Healthy, center.

EX FORDHAM STAR

New mentor of the University City eleven, Adam Elcewicz played four years of football and baseball at Fordham after starring at Bridge Tech.

Last season, he was an assistant coach at Latin along with being a member of the school's faculty.

His chief assistant will be Frank Frisoli, former Harvard athlete and onetime head of the Frisoli Club of the Greater Boston Suburban Twilight Baseball League.

Scientific Selections -:- Something New

Listaro Most Preferred In Time and Call Form

MOST PREFERRED—LISTARO—5TH RACE AT NARRAGANSETT

Scientific speed selections are computed by a new mathematical method perfected after many years of research by a group of the foremost students of time and call. Like all ratings or speed figures, these selections are based on running time, beaten lengths, weight on and off, and track variants.

Through a new method of computing variants, such as track, wind, rain and even snow, scientific speed ratings are expected to offer many winning longshots, usually overlooked by the every day selector.

Thoroughbred history has proven that most horses, especially of the plater variety, which have been away from active competition for a period of two weeks or more seldom run to top form in their initial outing. These horses are totally ignored in the approximate time and approximate call. Just how these horses shape up with the other entrants in the race, however, may be taken from the numerical ratings.

O'Brien, 150 Pounds, Carries Eagle Hopes

What Sammy Baugh did for the Washington Redskins in 1937 and Ed Danowski for the New York Giants in 1938 is what owner Bert Bell expects little Davey O'Brien to do for this year's edition of his Philadelphia Eagles of the national professional football league, according to the Associated Press.

Bell, in other words, expects O'Brien to pass and run the Eagles into the league championship.

O'Brien wad one of the outstanding stars of the last three college seasons. The little 150-pounder from Texas Christian runs the ball well, is a sound blocker and fearless tackler, runs back punts with the best of them and, when needed, can carry the ball through minute openings off tackle.

DAVEY SPARKPLUG

But above all he can pass. That, combined with his ability as a signal-caller, may provide the spark to lift the Eagles to the top.

While the Philadelphia team is being built around O'Brien, Little Davey isn't the only notable newcomer to Bell's roster. In the backfield alone, there is Franny Murray, versatile Pennsylvania ace of two season ago, who, as a disciple of the late Leroy Mills, became one of the best "spot" kickers in the business.

In addition, there are Jake Schuehle of Rice, Bill Ordway of North Dakota, Elmer Kolbert of Oregon State, Chuck Newton of the University of Washington and Pete Wister of St. Vincent.

Holdovers on the squad that has been working out daily at St. Joseph's College here and in Atlantic City also shape up as a potent group. Outstanding among the backs, of course, is veteran Dave Smukler, pile-driving fullback from Temple.

With O'Brien counted on to do considerable passing, the Eagles' ends will be particularly vital to the offense this season. The holdover pass receivers include Bill Hewitt and Joe Carter, two of the league's best, and Red Ramsey, who came along fast toward the end of the 1938 season.

TACKLES STRONG

Drew Ellis and Clem Woltman, rookies a year ago, are the leading tackle candidates, backed up by Wimpy Giddens and Ray Keeling. Bill Hughes and Ted Schmitt will be the mainstays at guard, with help from Giddens and White.

Half a dozen men are battling for the regular center job.

Bell has had 46 men working out since July 26. The Eagles will open their league season at home Sept. 10 against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Blaine Rideout Trails Again In Paris '1500'

PARIS, Aug. 20 (AP)—The touring American track team took 11 of 13 first places to wind up a two-day international meet with France before 12,000 spectators today.

The Americans were outclassed in both distance events. Blaine Rideout of North Texas Teachers dropped the 1500 meters to Normand and Ralph Schwarzkopf of the University of Michigan lost the two-mile run to Rochard, who bettered his own French record in finishing in 9:03. The old mark was 9:21.8. Schwarzkopf's time was 9:8.2.

On the other track and the field events, the Americans, who yesterday ran the 3200-meter relay in 7:35.2, six-tenths of a second faster than the world mark, had no trouble with their French opponents. Schwarzkopf, Rideout, Roy Cochran of Indiana and Charlie Beetham, ex-Ohio State star, made up the relay quartet in yesterday's world record run.

Big League Stars

By the Associated Press

JIM BROWN AND JOHNNY MIZE, Cardinals—Former singled with bases loaded to spark four-run rally which won first game of doubleheader; latter hit two home runs and batted in six tallies to win nightcap.

DICK SIEBERT, Athletics, and RED ROLFE, Yankees—Former drove in three runs with homer and single as A's took first game, and latter hit homers in both games and batted in three runs as Yanks won second.

GABBY HARTNETT, Cubs, and MAX BUTCHER, Pirates — Chicago's manager drove in four runs with double and single to lead his team to victory in first game. Butcher allowed only two hits in six-inning second game to earn his first victory of season.

DUTCH LEONARD, Senators, and JIMMIE FOXX, Red Sox—Veteran knuckleballer obtained his 14th victory with seven-hit shutout pitching. Latter led Boston to triumph in nightcap with his 32nd homer and a single.

A Half Hour Later I Had the Money

The chance of a lifetime slipping through my fingers . . . I had to get money or the deal was . . . Off! Only because I was short a small amount of money to swing it . . . They wouldn't wait—I told them I could raise it in a week, but nothing doing. It was cash that very afternoon, or no go! Then I made a smart move. I turned to the Record-American Want Ads and found a loan company. Called them up and a half hour later I had the money. No delays, no red tape, and no bother meant my putting through the deal in time!

Your need for immediate cash may not involve a business deal, but when you need money you can count on getting cash quickly when you consult a loan company advertising in the Record-American. If you own a car, or furniture, or hold a steady job, you can borrow money easily and confidentially from one of the dependable loan companies.

SARAH BIDS FOR 7TH TITLE

Comely British combination of Freda James Hammersley and Kay Stammers, who were to meet Alice Marble and Sarah Palfrey Fabyan in U. S. doubles final at Longwood this afternoon. American girls are defending champions; also Wimbledon title-holders

MRS. HAMMERSLEY KAY STAMMERS

DOUBLES FINALS AT LONGWOOD

Australia's amazing netmen must wait another few hours before they capture the United States doubles title out at the Longwood Cricket Club in Brookline.

Scheduled to be fought yesterday, the All-Aussie final had to be postponed until this afternoon because of the heavy showers.

This p. m., however, one of the Land Down Under combinations, Adrian Quist-Jack Bromwich or Harry Hopman-Jack Crawford, was to take the National Doubles title back to Australia for the first time in 20 years.

Establishing net history as the first all-foreign final in the 58-year history of the Longwood Nationals, today's match was expected to go to the Quist-Bromwich tandem, rated as the best in the world.

It is this pair that is scheduled to face the United States courtmen in their defense of the Davis Cup at Philadelphia next month.

And it is the same Australian combine that made Uncle Sam's foremost doubles teams appear woefully weak out at Brookline all last week.

Boston's favorite, Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan, and Alice Marble, attractive Hollywood representative, are paired as Uncle Sam's delegates against England's Kay Stammers and Mrs. Freda James Hammersley in the women's doubles final.

Listed to open the matinee's activity in the bowl court at 1:30 o'clock, this international get-together takes shape as a triumph for the American women, who have taken the championship for the last two summers.

If the American women do triumph today, it will mark the seventh National doubles championship for Mrs. Fabyan.

Britons Name Ryder Cup Team

LONDON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Dick Burton, the open titlist, and handsome Henry Cotton, long Britain's No. 1 golfer, headed a list of eight players selected for the Ryder Cup squad by the British pro golfers today.

James Adams, Sam King, Alf Padgham, "Dai" Rees, Charles Whitcombe and Reg Whitcombe were the others chosen. Two more will be added before the squad sails for the United States on October 18.

The matches will be played over the Ponte Verde course in Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 18-19.

Cards Owner's Condition Still Serious

ST. LOUIS—Aug. 21 (AP)—Dr. Robert F Hyland said today Sam Breadon, injured in a fall from a horse, still was in serious condition.

Breadon, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals National Baseball Club, was thrown over his horse's head while riding alone on his farm at Fenton, about 15 miles southeast of St. Louis. He suffered head injuries, face lacerations and a fractured right thumb.
